In celebration of International Women's Day 2024

Friday 8 March, 2024

9:15am – 12:30pm

In person: Parliament House, 6 Macquarie Street, Sydney.

Online: Link will be provided prior to the event.

To celebrate International Women's Day 2024 the Parliamentary Education team at the Parliament of NSW is holding the annual Young Women's Leadership Seminar (YWLS) for Year 11 students and their teachers.

The theme of International Women's Day 2024 is #inspireinclusion.

The YWLS provides an opportunity for students to hear from inspiring keynote speaker, Associate Professor Lisa Williams, a social psychologist whose research examines the dynamics between emotional experience and social interaction. Lisa will share personal stories of her professional highlights, setbacks, and experiences. In addition, a panel of female Members of Parliament will discuss highlights, challenges and opportunities they have experienced throughout their careers. Students will have the chance to ask questions during the question and answer component of the program.

By meeting and engaging with a variety of women in leadership roles and discussing the issues they face, the seminar aims to inspire students to consider leadership roles in their future careers.

Students are invited to attend the program in person or online. For those participating online, a link to the live stream will be emailed before the event. Students watching online can submit questions in real-time for the keynote speaker and panel to answer via www.slido.com.
