I agree to the following Conditions & Guidelines for entering this award

CONDITIONS & GUIDELINES

1. The NSW Parliament Democracy Day Short Film Award is free to enter.
2. The film must not exceed one minute in length.
3. The entrant/s must be Year 7 – 12 students enrolled in a school in New South Wales
4. Immediate family members of NSW Parliament employees, or the immediate family of Members of the NSW Parliament are not eligible to enter.
5. Entry into the competition means that the entrant warrants that they meet the entry eligibility requirements and accept these terms and conditions.
6. Entrants are responsible for any and all expenses that they incur in the making of the short film that they enter in the competition. The entrant will not be reimbursed for any and all expenses that they incur in the making of the short film, regardless of whether or not they win the competition.
7. Entries must not depict violence, smoking, alcohol or drug abuse. The short film must not be offensive or have objectionable content. Inclusion of coarse language is strongly discouraged.
8. All film entries must contain credits which list all the authors/creators of the entry and any actors and materials that appear in the film.

9. All copyright, moral rights and rights of personality for all content, music and actors must be obtained by the film maker. Failure to clear these rights will result in removal of the entry from consideration in the competition.
10. NSW Parliament takes no responsibility for any failure by an entrant to obtain the necessary authorisations. Entrants warrant that their short film (and any material comprising their short film) does not infringe the intellectual property rights or any other rights of any person.
11. Entrants give the NSW Parliament and ASPG the right to use entrant content in any form they choose for the Parli-Flicks – NSW Parliament Democracy Day Short Film Award or other promotional opportunities which may arise.
12. Entries must be submitted to dps.education@parliament.nsw.gov.au as a YouTube link by 12 midnight on Friday 1 July 2022 with a fully completed entry form.
13. Entries without a fully completed entry form will not be accepted.
14. Entrants accept that the decision of the judges' panel is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
15. Winners will be notified by email by Friday 22 August, 2022.
16. Winners agree to be photographed for promotional purposes at the award night.
